PURPOSE

BOANN's mission centers community. A community where each person can advocate for better health care and, in turn, change it for everyone. A community comfortable with death and grief in the open. A community that meaningfully supports health and end-of-life advocates.

To build that community we partner locally with likeminded organizations. Examples follow.

HELP TEXTS

Help Texts is personalized bereavement support, all year long. And, if your friends want to help, but aren't sure how, Help Texts will text them tips and reminders too.

ANATRES WELLNESS

Antares Wellness provides alternative and holistic health services through bodywork, deathcare, plant medicines, and art.

SHEILA ADDLEMAN PHOTOGRAPHY

In the business for nearly 20 years, Sheila brings an artistic eye to the pictures and focuses on the experience her clients have with her.
